CONFERENCE BYLAWS
1994

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the Conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These churches are listed by Districts.

4. Each church shall mail monthly reports to the Conference Office within ten days after the close of each month. In addition, each church shall mail semi-annual reports to the Conference Office by the tenth of July and the tenth of January; and shall mail an annual report to the Conference Office by January 10th. These reports shall be on forms made available from the Conference Office.

Pastoral Changes

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on the last Sunday of April or the first Sunday of May preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

3. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Conference Board for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church board makes a request to the Conference Board contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Conference Board. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall have been a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church prior to their applications for license.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine, reputation, and credit rating.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses of studies approved by the Conference Board. These courses may be offered by any approved college or be a course of study approved by the General Conference.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers offices.

4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions Committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the general program of the Denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing Superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The Conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the Conference Office by the tenth of the following month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job, it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the Conference Board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary at least annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of the pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the Annual Conference Session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of Conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of pastoral change, the church, which the pastor is leaving, will pay his salary and benefits through the week of the Annual Conference.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The Conference Treasurer shall pay the premiums for the Superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian Education Director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the Evangelism Director. These stated Departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the General Conference Minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the Conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist, without giving at least thirty days' notice, that church shall pay the evangelist.

9. The rate of thirty-one cents ($.315) per mile shall be paid for all official travel. This is subject to adjustment according to the rate adopted by GBA, GEB, or General Conference.

10. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses of retired ministers.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

Vacations

1. The Conference Superintendent shall be given three weeks vacation with pay each year. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

2. Pastors should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule which is based upon his total years in the pastorate, not just the years at his current pastorate:

One to ten years .....two weeks
Eleven years and up.....three weeks

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct not more than three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his Department.

Local Church--Ministerial Relations

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not frequently visit to the extent that it causes confusion and creates a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor.

Use of Conference Facilities

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of A Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the Office of the Conference Superintendent shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nominating Committee for all Conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the date for the Christian Worker's Institute and select the speakers for the Institute and the Falcon Camp Meeting.

3. The Conference Board and auxiliary Department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

Revision of By-Laws

The Conference Board shall serve as the Standing Committee on Revision of By-Laws. All revisions shall be recommended to the Conference in Session by the Revision Committee. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required to revise the By-Laws.

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

I praise our all-gracious Lord for His calling and anointing on my life for ministry. It is my treasured joy to serve Him!

I am grateful to my wife, Sylvia, and my family for their faithful support. The congregations of this Conference have contributed so much to my spiritual well-being, too.

The Conference Board you have prayerfully chosen is a dedicated team of leaders. The other ministry Boards of this Conference are equally committed to this ministry.

Pastors, you opened your pulpits to me to speak on 169 occasions. I visited 1697 times with individuals and groups, sometimes in my office, pastor's studies, homes, restaurants and other locations. I have chaired meetings of the Conference Board, Christian Education, Evangelism, Missions and Falcon Children's Home Boards. I have participated in meetings with the Zone Superintendents, General Board of Administration, General World Missions Board, and Emmanuel College Board of Education. I led the activities of the Falcon and Piney Grove Campmeetings, Christian Worker's Institute and 12 Bi-District Conference Rallies. I conducted "Day with the Superintendent" seminars for the Conference clergy. All this required considerable time and energy.

Mrs. Linda Thomas, Conference President and the Conference Women's Ministries Board, the twelve District Directors and each local church Women's Ministries leadership team is a mighty force for ministry in each community. The impact and effect of this valuable entity encircles the globe in a caring and sharing influence.

GEMS is led by Mrs. Sandra McCandless a lady who is supported by a dedicated army of girls and women who believe with all their hearts that Girls must be involved in Entering the Master's Service.

Our Assistant Conference Superintendent, Brother D. Chris Thompson, is the Director of Evangelism and World Missions for this Conference. The obvious results of his commitment to Global Harvest is reflected in the revitalization of a number of churches who are served by pastors he has influenced in seminars, personal contacts and other forums of instruction. He leads a team of twelve district directors, and 36 other district unit leaders and a World Missions Committee of nine Holy-Spirit anointed men and women. When I observe, as chairman, the monumental challenge these dear people have accepted, I readily understand why we continue to grow at home and in our support of His Harvest in all the world.

I praise God for the large number of evangelists and missionaries who are members of this Conference, I envision an unprecedented church growth possibility in the days ahead should our Lord tarry in His return to receive His own.

The Conference Financial Office was directed by a very qualified leader, Secretary/Treasurer, Brother Gary Strickland. However at the 1996 Conference session we chose to make that office full-time. Brother Strickland decided to stay in the pastorate. You chose Brother Roland Harrell to serve as the full-time Conference Stewardship Officer. Brother Harrell has gotten off to a very effective start in this ministry. The best days for this ministry are ahead!

Brother Bobby Forehand continues to serve diligently and effectively as Conference Christian Education Director.

The faithful commitment of a host of supporters throughout this network of local church youth and Christian Education leaders gives this director and Board encouragement. Youth and Teen Talent, Bible Quiz, Royal Rangers and Falcon Youth Camp continue to be a viable stream of recruiting and training young people and children in the Gospel Ministry.

Brother Forehand also serves as Royal Rangers National Commander. He and Conference Commander, Colonel Bill Linn, U.S.Army (retired), have a profound influence on a multitude of men and boys in the service of our Lord.

Men's Ministries, led by Brother Phil Mooring, is a growing group of men dedicated to the cause of Christ. I believe, with the total cooperation of our pastors, that this ministry can continue to develop into one of the strongest bases of support for the work of pastors in the local church. We must release them into ministry more than ever!

WIN, "World Intercession Network", continues to be a strong arm of this ministry. Conference Board Member, Pastor Danny Nelson, is our dedicated Director. He and a team of local church WIN directors from across this Conference are constantly mobilizing and encouraging our folks to continually stay committed to the ministry of intercessory prayer. This ministry is one of the most opportune strategies we have been given by our Lord.

Mrs. Sylvia Long, my wife, continues to lead the Minister's Wives Fellowship. This effort is a valuable opportunity available to all minister's wives. In this day of a vast array of forces that assail the home and ministry, every pastor's and evangelist's wife needs this involvement.

The Conference Resource Development Center staff are valuable personnel. Dolores Reynolds, Lisa Clifton, Kay Glover, Rose Nelson, Westa Barefoot, Lib Collins, Dwayne Dunning and Bobby and Ruby West are the dear people who keep the everyday work of the office going. This is a dedicated team of true servants.

Every pastor, evangelist, superannuated minister, mission worker and local church member are responsible for this ministry. You are the key to any success the Lord grants us. Your prayer life and life style will greatly determine our future of this church and the world around us.

To God be the Glory!

I Thessalonians 5:12-13

"And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake."

Today, we want to express our appreciation for some special people who have labored faithfully in the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. We love them for their diligence in living out the Christian faith in their own lives. We love them for being sensitive to the voice of God's calling upon their lives. We love them for their willingness to sacrifice in His service that others might grow and mature spiritually through their ministry. MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

Today we pause to reflect and remember those of our number who have left us to enter into their eternal reward. In Jesus' intercessory prayer he prayed these words. "Father, I will that they also, whom thou has given me, be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory...."John 17:24A. This is not the end for those who have gone on before us. Nor is it the beginning of the end. IT IS THE END OF THE BEGINNING. They have stepped up to a higher level of knowledge and ministry.

We recognize:

Leland S. Eatmon
November, 1934 - September, 1995

Leland Eatmon made the greatest decision of his life in 1941. He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour. He walked in new life as a young man born again, forgiven, and adopted into the family of God. In 1966 received and accepted the call to preach. He joined the N. C. Conference in that year and received his ordination in 1968. For twenty-eight years he pastored in the N. C. Conference. Five churches were changed and blessed by his ministry. They were Stantonsburg, Taylors Chapel, Whitley, Calvary (Heritage), and Thomas Chapel. In the words of his faithful wife, Barbara, "He was a kind, gentle, and loving man. He was so humble, he didn't let too many things get him down. All he wanted to do was serve God and love people, and for people to love him." His spirit and influence lives on in the lives he touched so well.

Odell T. Howard
June 1909 - December, 1995

Brother O. T. Howard was a well-balanced Christian minister and gentleman. He was converted in 1926 during a revival meeting at the Oak Street Pentecostal Holiness Church. Two years after his conversion he attended Holmes Bible and Missionary Institute in Greenville, S. C. He graduated in 1935. His membership within the N. C. Conference dates back to October 1933. He was a preacher - a proclaimer of Biblical truth. Ministry to him was life. He invested in the lives of all he pastored. His pastoring began at the Tarboro First Church. He continued as a faithful pastor at these churches - Wakelon, Rehoboth, Roper, Whiteville, Clinton, Sharon, Elizabethtown, Rocky Mount, Emmanuel, Tabernacle (Goldsboro), Saint Paul, Shiloh (Wilson), Belfast and Moores Chapel. In 1939 the N. C. Conference elected him conference secretary. He served in that office for thirty-five years. During his superannuate years he became very active in ministry at the Greenville First Church. In the words of his faithful friend and co-laborer, Ralph R. Johnson, "He was a good and faithful husband, a father, and dedicated pastor. Brother Howard was the best man I have ever known. The steps of a good man are ordered of the Lord. May God bless the memory of this good man and sustain his lovely wife and children."

Charlie E. Hester
November, 1901 - May, 1996

We don't know when C. E. Hester took his first steps but we know when he took his first step toward his heavenly father and his elder brother, Jesus Christ. He was born again in September, 1927. He was called to preach in 1938. His membership within the N. C. Conference began in the summer of 1940. He was ordained in the summer of 1944. Brother Hester pastored eight churches over the years of his ministry. They were Oak Ridge (two terms), Raeford, Black Swamp Mission, Aberdeen, Bladen County Mission, Calvary (Tar Heel), Hope Mills, and the Bashan Holiness Church. After thirty-two years of active ministry he retired in 1970. A fellowship hall at the Hope Mills Church is named in his honor. In his superannuate days he continue his active ministry in conducting regular services in area nursing homes. He was a man worthy of the titles Christian and pastor.

In addition to these soldiers of the cross, we memorialize the following who were members of the Falcon Camp Meeting Association at one time or another:

Eva Chance ---------- Shiloh Pentecostal Holiness Church, Godwin
Pearlie Emmanuel ----- Shiloh Pentecostal Holiness Church, Godwin
Eulace C. Maynor ----- Shiloh Pentecostal Holiness Church, Godwin
Virginia Maynor ------ Shiloh Pentecostal Holiness, Church, Godwin
Mary Keel ------------ New Bern First Pentecostal Holiness Church, New Bern
Willie Kirksey ------- Culbreth Memorial Pentecostal Holiness Church, Falcon
Malta McArthur ------- Antioch Baptist Church, Falcon
Douglas Mitchell ----- Scotland Neck Pentecostal Holiness Church, Scotland Neck
John Pollard --------- Holly Hill Pentecostal Holiness Church, Vanceboro
Donald E. Thompson --- Manley Grove Pentecostal Holiness Church, Mount Olive Henry H. Parrish ----- Bizzell Grove Pentecostal Holiness Church, Princeton

Max Lucado tell us, "If there are a thousand steps between us and God, He will take all but one. He will leave the final one for us. The choice is ours." These named men and women of God took and continued to take those steps toward Him. We remember and salute them today!

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 1996 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the fifty second annual convention on Saturday, June 8, 1996, at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, NC.

The convention theme was "OUR MISSION...At Home and Abroad".

Registration began at 8:30 A.M. with the NCWM District Directors serving as registrars. Musical prelude began at 9:15 with Mrs. Jane Warren as pianist and Mrs. Linda Faircloth as organist.

The convention was called to order at 9:30 A.M. with greetings and invocation by North Carolina Conference Superintendent Rev. T. Elwood Long. NCWM President Linda M. Thomas, gave the response and welcome. Opening choruses were led by Miss Shirley Proctor.

Mrs. Janice Marshburn, NCWM Board Member, began the business session by reviewing the packet distributed to those present and by discussing upcoming events and announcements.

President Linda M. Thomas gave the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" report. She expressed appreciation to all who have supported the NCWM programs throughout the past year. Linda stressed the mission of the North Carolina Women's Ministries which is to share Christ and touch the lives of men, women, boys and girls around the world through our prayers, our finances and our deeds. Each local W. M. was encouraged to keep this mission alive in the hearts and lives of the women across the North Carolina Conference.

President Thomas expressed her appreciation to the NCWM Board members, Sue Parker, Patsy Deese, Phyllis Harrell and Janice Marshburn. Board members were presented a gift of appreciation and each were given time to share a brief statement about their portfolio.

President Thomas then presented gifts of appreciation to the NCWM District Directors, NCWM Historian, Dorothy Boyette, NC GEMS Board members, Sandra McCandless, Ruth Foley, Sarah Fuquay and Elaine Stalls. MWF Director, Mrs. Sylvia Long was presented a gift of appreciation and given an opportunity to share a brief statement about the goals she and her committee have strived to accomplish.

Other Committees recognized were: Happy Hearts Ministry, Couples Retreat, and Singles Retreat Committee.

NCWM Secretary/Treasurer, Patsy Deese with the assistance of President Thomas presented the 1995 awards earned by each local Women's Ministry group. These awards are listed in the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" booklet.

Mrs. Dollie Davenport, Chairperson of the Past Presidents' Club, read the following resolution from the 1994 NCWM Convention:

"The past Conference W.M. Presidents be encouraged to form a self-supporting Past Presidents Club for the purpose of fellowship, encouragement, and continued involvement in a supporting role..."

Mrs. Davenport shared that the first project of this club was to recommend that a fitting tribute and Information Center be established in the Octagon Tabernacle in honor of Mrs. Lila Berry since she organized the first Woman's Auxiliary in the Octagon Tabernacle on May 10, 1944. Mrs. Davenport then presented President Thomas with:

-An audio tape with a 4-minute message about Mrs. Berry, (this tape was recorded by Mrs. Berry's granddaughter, Mrs. Beverly Berry Shirley).
-A tape player to be used for playing tape
-A plaque to be used with Mrs. Berry's picture which reads:

LILA W. BERRY
FOUNDER WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

MAY 10, 1944
OCTAGON TABERNACLE, FALCON

Mrs. Davenport stated that the Past President's Club hoped that the audio tape would enhance the visits of groups touring the Octagon Tabernacle, and that it will serve as a constant reminder of our great Christian heritage.

After reading the scripture, Rev. 14:13, Mrs. Davenport gave the Memoirs Report..

Mrs Diane Harris set the tone of the devotional part of the Convention with a special song, "Stars In My Crown". Then the Youth Drama Team from The Stedman P. H. Church presented a drama presentation of "Crowns For His Feet". Mrs. Sue Parker, NCWM Vice-President, introduced Mrs. Joyce Blease, General W. M. Board Member. Mrs. Blease chose Acts Chapter 8 as the scripture for her timely message. She opened our spiritual eyes to realize that for us to be an effective witness we need to know our world, know ourselves, and know our God. We were challenged to worship, witness and become warriors for Christ.

President Thomas gave closing remarks. Mrs. Phyllis Harrell led in the benediction.

The beautiful floral arrangement was furnished by the Jacksonville Women's Ministries in loving memory of Mrs. Hazel Robinson.

REPORT of the PRESIDENT

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Matthew 16:26a

The above reference scripture has been ringing in my heart for several months as I have focused my attention on the real mission of Women's Ministries. As your president, I feel deeply the responsibility of leadership which Sue, Patsy, Phyllis, Janice and I have to provide direction for our organization. As leaders, we have stressed to you the importance of supporting projects and outreach ministries. We have been able to provide leadership training sessions to keep you informed and updated regarding various programs and projects.

As I have visited and shared with many local Women's Ministries groups in the past two years of my presidency, I have found that you are doing wonderful works within your local churches. Much of your energy is focused on financial and physical needs. You are providing resources, through your local fundraising, to meet the tangible needs.

All this truly is a part of the purpose of Women's Ministries; however, I feel an urgency to stress to you that we must make spiritual welfare a priority. Our meetings should be designed to include unchurched friends and neighbors. Opportunities for evangelizing should be at the core of all we do.

We all work hard each year to meet the criteria of our Award Evaluation. As a result, many of you will receive awards today for your efforts in 1995. You are commended for that. But when we stand before God, our certificates and awards will be as nothing if they do not also represent souls won to Christ. Our main focus, in and through all that we do, must be to WIN THE LOST TO JESUS.

So, as we face the years leading us into the twenty-first century, may I invite you to join in this special focus. Season each activity with prayer. Remember that the ultimate purpose of Christmas Missions, Feast of Ingathering, Harvest Train, and all other projects is to touch souls for Christ. As we give, we are affording the means of carrying the gospel to places where we cannot go. Also, remember that we must reach those who are in the shadows of our steeples as well.

Our theme for this convention today is OUR MISSION...At Home & Abroad. What is the mission of North Carolina Women's Ministries? Simply this:

North Carolina Women's Ministries will share and touch the lives of men, women, boys and girls around the world through our prayers, our finances and our deeds.

Thank you for being a part of the NCWM family and for sharing in the mission set before us. All the accomplishments you note in this report are possible only because of your commitment and dedication. May God's richest blessing and anointing be upon you as you touch and win souls through Women's Ministries.

Countless hours have been spent on the telephone and at the computer and have traveled many miles.

RE-ORGANIZED & NEWLY ORGANIZED WM GROUPS:
I have been privileged to re-organize the Women's Ministries groups at Aberdeen and Plymouth and to organize a new group at Independence.

SPECIAL PROJECT:
At the 1995 convention, you brought funds in the amount of $1,656.00 toward the Falcon Campus Renovation Fund. More funds are still needed to complete this project, and we encourage you to make plans within your local groups to do a fund-raiser to help with the new cafeteria furnishings.

APPRECIATION TO:
NCWM Board Members, SUE PARKER, PATSY DEESE, PHYLLIS HARRELL and JANICE MARSHBURN. We have spent many hours together in prayer and planning for NCWM. Each of them makes a great contribution to the leadership team. They truly have NCWM at heart.
NCWM District Directors, JOYCE SWINSON, PATSY PAYNE, JUSTINE LEE, JANIE HOWARD, TERRI HODGE, CHARLENE STRONG, DONNA LONG, MESHELDER RICHARDSON, FAYE VIVERETTE, LINDA ASKEW, TERESA BRADSHAW and GAIL DAVIS. These ladies have given countless hours making contacts within the districts, as well as planning and executing wonderful district rallies. They have also been present for each NCWM sponsored event to assist in many ways. They are dedicated to God and to NCWM.
NCWM HISTORIAN DOROTHY BOYETTE, for keeping a pictorial and historical record of NCWM happenings. She also blessed us with her special devotion at leadership Seminar in January.
NC GEMS Board Members, SANDRA MCCANDLESS, RUTH FOLEY, SARAH FUQUAY AND ELAINE STALLS. What a wonderful GEMS Leadership Team these ladies have made. GEMS in NC Conference is not only alive and well -- but continually growing. They along with their district directors, are making an impact on the lives of the girls of the NC Conference.
Minister's Wives Fellowship Committee chaired by SYLVIA LONG. REGENIA WHITFIELD AND ANN WOOLARD serve with her. They have sponsored several very successful events for ministers' wives during the past year. ALL MINISTERS' WIVES are encouraged to participate in this fellowship.
Happy Hearts Ministry Committee chaired by BLANCHE POLLARD. She along with DAISY MORRIS, KATHERINE LUCAS and JEAN WILLIAMS are doing a great job directing this special ministry for our senior ladies. During the past year, they supported the Red Hook Mission in Brooklyn, NY, through their Christmas Stocking project and financial mean.
Couples Retreat Committee co-chaired by CATHY WARD and CATHY ARTHUR. Their group delivered an excellent weekend retreat in Asheville last year and have plans for a Myrtle Beach weekend for 1996.
Singles Retreat Committee chaired by EDNA WILLIAMS. Fun and fellowship was had by all who attended the Camp Dixie special weekend for singles last year. The event is scheduled there again for 1996.
Past Presidents' Club chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT. Clara Williams, Jean Williams, Sue Parker, Faye Leggett and Mary Belle Johnson share in this fellowship with Dollie. I am often blessed by their notes of encouragement -- just when I need it most! I know that they, too, have been there and can truly relate to my needs -- both physical and spiritual.

NC Conference Superintendent, Rev. T. E. LONG and the NC Conference Board for the support and encouragement they have given me.
Conference RDC Personnel, DELORES, ROSE, LISA, WESTA, and KAY. These ladies have all been so generous with their time and resources as I have called on them for various helps during the year. And we couldn't leave DWAYNE out. He is our everpresent help in time of need when we come to Falcon for an event.
My Husband and best friend, JOE. He has been my biggest supporter. When I've had to burn the midnight oil, when I didn't know which job to do first, when my deadlines caused frustration...he's been there to help and encourage me. When the car had to be loaded and unloaded, when I needed a riding partner, when I just needed a listening ear, he's been there. What a blessing it is to have a partner who is willing to share in my ministry. I truly thank God for Joe and our family.
Persons on Convention Program... thank you for sharing in this special day. You make this convention a truly memorable time for all of us. Thank you for sharing your talent and ministries with us.
All who attend...YOU, and YOU, and YOU!!! You are Women's Ministries. You are why we exist. Because of you, NCWM is reaching around the world, carrying the gospel and ministering to the needs of Millions. Special thanks to each of you.
TO GOD BE THE GLORY, GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE! It is not by our hands that anything has been accomplished. We are only instruments being used and directed by God. We praise Him for blessings, health and strength to carry on this work; and we look to Him for direction, guidance and wisdom for each new tomorrow. May we each be willing to follow where He leads...and thus fulfill our mission...at home and abroad.

In His love,

Linda M. Thomas, President
North Carolina Women' Ministries

AND I HEARD A VOICE FROM HEAVEN SAYING UNTO ME, WRITE, BLESSED ARE THE DEAD WHICH DIE IN THE LORD FROM HENCEFORTH; YEA, SAITH THE SPIRIT, THAT THEY MAY REST FROM THEIR LABORS, AND THEIR WORKS DO FOLLOW THEM.

--REV. 14:13

Realizing that he would soon be gone from this world one day, Moody said to a friend, "Someday you will read in the papers that D. L. Moody of Northfield is dead. Don't you believe a word of it."
"At that moment I shall be more alive than I am now. I shall have gone higher, that is all--out of this old clay tenement into a house that is immortal, a body that sin cannot touch, that sin cannot taint, a body fashioned into His glorious body. I was born in the flesh in 1837; I was born of the Spirit in 1856. That which is born of the flesh may die; that which is born of the Spirit shall live forever."
During the past year, many of our loyal Women's Ministries members have preceded us to Glory. Their message to us today is that they are more alive than they have ever been. Though our hearts are saddened by their absence from us, let us rejoice that the following Saints have won the race and are now basking in the presence of our Lord:
